

Application summary sheet

Master's Program in Strategic Information Systems Management

This form is intended to support assessment and selection for the program. Submit it with your application. It does not replace your transcript of records or other documents required to establish eligibility.

Identification

Full name As stated in your application
Application number

Previous studies

Primary degree

Degree e.g., bachelors degree	Awarding university
Main field of study e.g., computer science	Study years e.g. 2022-2025
Total credits Enter the total credits required for your degree, using the credit system of your awarding institution.	Grading scale State the lowest passing grade and the highest possible grade according to the grading scale of your awarding institution.
Overall average grade / GPA Enter your overall average grade or GPA using the grading system of your awarding institution (e.g., 4.2/5.0 or 3.7/4.0).

Additional degree (optional)

Degree	Awarding university
Main field of study	Study years
Total credits	Overall average grade / GPA

Other relevant studies or information (optional)

For example: exchange studies, courses not included in a degree, or other information needed to understand your academic record such as ongoing degrees.

Selection questions

Please answer each question separately and keep within the stated maximum. Focus on information that helps the selection committee understand your preparation, motivation and academic goals.

1. Why have you chosen this programme, and how does it relate to your academic interests or goals?

Maximum 150 words.

2. How have your previous studies, projects, work, or other experiences prepared you for this programme? Please give specific examples.

Maximum 150 words.

3. Which areas or topics within the programme are you particularly interested in exploring, and why?

Maximum 150 words.

Before submitting, make sure that the information in this form is consistent with the documents included in your application.