

Decolonial Feminisms Seminar Series at Stockholm University: Decolonial Perspectives and Methods in Research on Social Reproduction

With Professor Akua. O. Britwum from the University of Western Cape, Department of Labour and Human Resource Studies, University of Cape Coast, Ghana and Professor Shirin Rai at the SOAS, University of London, Department of Politics and International Studies.

When: 20th October 15.00- 16.20 (CEST)

Where: Hybrid seminar, Zoom and Room 1607, Department of Education, Stockholm University (NB! Not on the Frescati campus, it is located behind the Museum of Natural History)

The seminar will be online, but it will be possible to meet at Stockholm University, Department of Education to watch the dialogue jointly and participate in the QA that will follow after the conversation:

Zoomlink

<https://stockholmuniversitet.zoom.us/j/69177591657>

Professor Akua. O. Britwum and Professor Shirin Rai will meet in a conversation. They will share with us how they have approached the concept of Decoloniality and how they have worked with decolonial perspectives and methods in their research on Social Reproduction.

Warm welcome!

Paula, Fataneh and Tanushree